Cinzia Travaglini & Massimo Collauto

The Travaglini family has owned land in the Alto-Piemonte commune of Gattinara since the beginning of the 19th century. It wasn't until 1958 when Giancarlo Travaglini established the historic winery. It was Giancarlo who recognized a greater potential in Gattinara and executed groundbreaking changes in his vineyards and cellar, unseen before in the appellation. Today the winery is run by fourth generation Cinzia Travaglini along with her winemaking husband Massimo Collauto.

Biondi-Santi

Discussing Brunello without the acknowledgment of Biondi-Santi is impossible. Established in 1840, this estate introduced the inaugural Brunello di Montalcino in 1888 by Ferruccio Biondi-Santi. Remarkably, only 42 vintages of the Riserva have been released since then.

Luigi Tecce

A visit to Luigi Tecce is an emotional Journey. Luigi, a vibrant character, crafts Aglianico from Taurasi that stirs deep emotions. His grandfather's farmhouse and vineyard sare nestled in Taurasi's Sud-Alta Valle, boasting high-altitude terrain with layered soil of sand, limestone, and Vesuvius' pumice. Amidts 80+ year old vines, Luigi works in solitude, creating wines that are both exuberant and guarded, archaic and immediate. There's a theatrical pleasure in them, carrying the tradition of Mastroberardino's Taurasi, yet Luigi stands out among the limited Taurasi producers, perhaps even surpassing the old master.

Becky Wasserman-Hone & Russell Hone

Becky Wasserman-Hone with her husband Russell at their home in Burgundy. Becky was an American-born wine importer who championed the wines and the small artisanal producers of Burgundy. Becky said about the wines she represents, “wines made by people doing their level best to be true to what they are, winemakers who are interpreters of the terroir, not stylists imposing their ideas on the terroir.”
